

The applications programmer creates and supports the computer code used by the organization's computer applications. The duties of this position are:

- Designing, coding, testing, and documenting computer programs
- Analyzing and resolving coding problems
- Developing specifications for program enhancements

Approximate number of training hours - 353

This Learning Plan represents an industry standard education plan for this job role. Please note that the equivalent job role at your organization may use different software applications or require greater or lesser levels of expertise in any area. Please check our site regularly to see what new or updated courses have been added to this plan!

- Interskill e-Learning Courses
- Interskill Skills Assessments
- Indicates that courses on similar products are available and can be substituted
- Indicates that other assessments can be substituted for this one
- Optional

Note: Interskill e-Learning Courses cover all the main topics tested in the Assessments. Prior to completing each Assessment, it is recommended that you obtain additional practical experience, or on-the-job training in the areas relevant to the Assessment topic.